PRAISE & PRAYER

- Pray for our shut-ins: LYDIA K. and SELMA S.
- Pray for TONY DUNAWAY whose position as Chief Operating Officer (COO) for Every Orphan's Hope, was eliminated as of March 31st. As he travels back to the Dunaway farm in Mississippi he asks for prayer as he seeks God's heart in moving onto what comes next in his life.
- Pray for our Good Friday and Easter services coming up this weekend that they would be meaningful times of remembering what our Lord has done for us, as well as opportunities for those who don't know Christ to be drawn to him.

SUNDAY, APRIL 9TH, 2017

THIS MORNING:

What you believe about someone matters a lot. Imagine if a doctor informed me that I had a serious health condition that required major surgery very soon. If I didn't believe that he is a doctor I would ignore what he was saying and end up very sick – or dead. Or, what if I was lost in the Rocky Mountains and a rescuer came to me with his ropes and compass and maps to lead me to safety. If I thought "Those aren't real ropes, and he probably doesn't know how to use those compass and maps," I would not be inclined to trust him and follow him back to civilization. In that case, once again, I would be the loser.

Some people say that it's not important to believe who Jesus is. But who we believe he is will determine what we think of him and how we relate to him. In the Matthew 16 Scripture passage this morning, Jesus asks his disciples what they think of him. "Who do you say I am?" Peter responds with the words "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." This statement of faith will determine everything about your relationship with Jesus. It is central to understanding who Jesus is, why he came to this earth, and what he can do for you as your Saviour and Lord. What do you believe about Jesus?
