SUNDAY, MAY 7TH, 2017

THIS MORNING:

Relationships are the stuff of life. You cannot get through a single day without interacting with large numbers of people. Some of these people you enjoy seeing and talking to. Others you could just as well do without. But for the most part, you don't have a choice when it comes to dealing with them. Whether it's a caring family member, or a clerk at the store, you must learn to interact with – and get along with – all kinds of individuals. Sometimes things happen that put a strain on our interactions with others. Jesus tells us that we are to resolve those situations as soon as possible and seek to live peaceably with everyone.

The reason we need to get along with others is because we need each other. No man is an island. And it's been proven that people who get along with others and relate in positive ways to others are healthier and happier than those who don't. I think that says a lot right there about the way that God has made us. He created us to be in community with one another. Of all people, Christ-followers should be people who get along well with others. As we learn to live like Jesus we will be people who exhibit healthy, positive relationships with others.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

TONY CAMPOS
CASA DE LUZ

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA.

Casa de Luz is a Hispanic church, but decided last year to launch an English service as well. Because of this, they have seen people from different backgrounds and ethnicities come to know the Lord. Casa de Luz is also involved in two new church plants: one in Natomas, a neighborhood in north Sacramento, that has already seen some fruit; and one in Lodi, a rural city south of Sacramento, that is still in the early stages of evangelism and discipleship. Tony and his wife, Fabiola, have three children. Pray for the development of new leaders within the English ministry. Pray as well that the new church plants will effectively reach out and disciple those within their community. For more information, check out www.casadeluz.net.
