THIS MORNING:

One of the most exciting things in football is to watch a trick play happen. I recall during one CFL game, as the offense was setting up for the snap, all of a sudden players were running on and off the field and changing positions. When they were finally set, the announcer said “They’re missing one player! This play is going to be called back!” The ball was snapped, and all of a sudden the missing player appeared almost from nowhere, ran down the field and the quarterback threw him a touchdown pass. It was a “sleeper” play. What seemed to be chaos on the field was actually a well-orchestrated play by the coach and quarterback, and what looked like it was going to end in disaster turned out to be a bonus.

Sometimes when we look at the world it seems that people and armies and nations are operating in utter chaos. We can’t make head or tail out of what’s happening, but as we look back over the centuries, we can see how God has had His hand in all things, conducting the affairs of men. This is true in world history and it’s true in our own lives. The Bible tells us that God is the ultimate director. He has a plan and He uses the works of man to accomplish that plan. History is moving toward an ultimate, final climax, and we can be assured that as we trust our God, and work with Him, that He will bring all things to a perfect ending.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

LYNDELL CAMPBELL-REQUIA NAB MISSIONARY, BRAZIL

Lyndell serves in Brazil as a seminary teacher and as a church planter. Much of her work centers around the Pastoral Formation program at the Rio Grande Do Sul Baptist Theological Seminary. Her husband, Paulo, recently joined the mission TeachBeyond, and he is an NAB partner missionary. He works with church planters in poor communities to evangelize and improve the quality of life for children and adolescents. Pray for continued safety, as they live in one of the most dangerous cities in the world. Pray as well for both Lyndell's and Paulo's ministry.
