THIS MONTH:

It's often been said that the better we understand yesterday, the better we can understand today. History may or may not be our favourite subject, but without an understanding of where we've come from, it's hard to know where we're headed. This month, we are going to take a trip back in history as we look at the life of the early church in the New Testament Book of Acts. Like us, the early church had its share of success and failure, peace and controversy, popularity and persecution. And yet, regardless of circumstances, the church continued to press on in the cause of the gospel under the Lord's sovereign hand. We have many things to learn from the experiences of these early believers in Jesus Christ, and we will consider a few of these as we journey through the book of Acts to learn some lessons from the early church.

SERMON SERIES:

August 27th - Acts 6:1-7—The Undistracted Church

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

BRIAN MACSWAN
LEGACY CHURCH
BELLINGHAM, WASHINGTON

The Pacific Northwest has been called the "none zone," with more people than anywhere else in the nation claiming no religious affiliation. Pastor Brian and the people at Legacy Church, which opened at the beginning of last year, have a desire to reach the people of their city and see Bellingham renewed by Jesus and His Gospel. They desire to be a church plant that plants churches. Pray for them as they seek to partner with God in what He is doing in Bellingham. You can learn more about them at www.legacybellingham.com
