SUNDAY, DECEMBER 27TH, 2015

THIS MORNING:

Imagine for a moment that the Prime Minister Trudeau, actor Harrison Ford or the great one himself, Wayne Gretzky was coming to your home. What would you be feeling? What would you do? How would it change your life? As much as this would be exciting and also a life changing experience, something happened 2000 years ago that was an even bigger event... God came to be among us! (John 1:1-5, 14)

This was and still would be a much bigger deal than having any other famous individual come for a short stay as it did not only affect those who got to see, touch, or talk to Jesus but it would have an eternal impact on the whole world. This morning we will look at just a few examples from Jesus' life that display just how amazing it is that God chose to be among us!

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

BUD & LOIS - EAST ASIA

Bud and Lois are not new to the NAB family. In 1983, they answered the call to go to Cameroon where Bud served as the youth director of the Cameroon Baptist Convention. Because of family health issues, they returned to North America where Bud served as a p*stor at NAB ch*rches and on staff in various roles. They currently live in Utah where two of their sons live. The Father has prompted them to finish their full-time ministry calling by once again serving internationally. Their goal is to touch lives in East Asia through teaching conversational English to students of other languages. Pr*y for Bud and Lois as they seek ministry opportunities in Utah, while continuing to raise funds so they can get to the field to serve alongside Nick and Iris. Pr*y for the progress of their book on parenting, that it might open doors for offering seminars and a new perspective to an Asian culture. Pr*y for the challenges they face in learning a new language. [*marks are intentional to protect NAB workers in restricted nations].
