PRAISE & PRAYER

- Pray for our shut-ins: Lynda D and Bob H
- Pray for Ron & Jeannie Seck who are based in Hungary, Central Europe. Their gifts of faith, leadership, preaching and hospitality are used to develop Roma (Gypsy) Christian communities.
- Pray for the work of Pathway Camp Ministries as they minister to our First Nations people in Canada. We see much in the news about the great need for healing and spiritual renewal that is evident in many of these communities. Pray that God's spirit would overcome the pain in these places.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14TH, 2016

THIS MORNING:

If you watched the Super Bowl last week you probably saw at least part of the half-time show. It was billed as a performance by the group Coldplay, and while I can't say I'm a fan, I think that at least they've got some pretty good songs. So, just as I was getting settled in to hear them, all of a sudden these rapper dudes appear and shortly after them, stage left, comes Beyonce with her entourage of twenty or thirty leather-black-skin-tight-clad singers jerking and gyrating their way onto stage with their heads flinging from side to side, hair flying and pelvises being thrust forward and back with enough force to drive a two-by-four through a cinder block wall. It was raunchy, it was suggestive, it was in-your-face sex.

We're truly scraping the bottom of the barrel today when all you need is 100,000 watt speakers to blast everybody's eardrums and women acting like strippers in a sleazy bar to pass as family entertainment. And it's all about sex. We need to be lifted out of the sewer of our culture's notion of what is acceptable entertainment, and especially we need to be lifted above the animalistic behaviour of what passes for love and sex. The Bible has a book devoted to the expression of sexual love (surprise!!) called the Song of Solomon, and today we will take a look at some of what it has to say about the topic.
