SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 28TH, 2016

THIS MORNING:

The kingdoms of this world set their crowns on those who are rich, powerful, successful, intelligent, or beautiful. After all, these are the kinds of people who can attract a following, have influence, and get things done.

Not so with Jesus. His kingdom is “not of this world,” and he proves it by often picking losers to lead the cause. Consider the Woman at the Well from John chapter 4. If anyone from the town of Sychar was asked to choose who would be “most likely to start a spiritual revival in our town,” this immoral outcast would be at the bottom of the list. But Jesus enjoys surprising us by choosing the Reject to become the Revival Starter.

Isn't this good news? It means that no one is too far from the kingdom of God. Anyone can get in; anyone can come to Jesus; anyone can have his or her life changed forever! That was good news for the Woman at the Well, and it's good news for us today, no matter who we are or what our spiritual condition is.

Walter and Florence Grob, NAB Missionary, Cameroon. Walter holds the position of Controller for the Cameroon Baptist Convention (CBC), which oversees financial matters for NAB missionaries and the CBC. The CBC Central Administration building has recently been demolished in preparation for a multi-story maternity building that will also house the administration.
