OPERATION MOBILIZATION AFRICA TREK

On January 18th I will be embarking on a three-month long mission trip to Africa through Operation Mobilization. The trip involves moving around various countries, sleeping in tents, helping local missionaries and pastors in whatever ways we can, and witnessing to those we meet. I am not sure of the exact details of what we will be doing, as it depends on the communities we are in. We will be starting out in South Africa and then moving on to Namibia, Zambia and Zimbabwe and will finish off back in South Africa. I have felt God calling me to Africa for a long time now, and I am very excited that I can finally follow that calling.

Praise items:

- that God provided me a job for the past few months
- the wonderful church family that God has placed me in that is so encouraging and generous
- that the preparation for this trip has all been fairly easy and without problems

Prayer items:

- health throughout my trip
- that God would grow me in many ways
- that people would learn about God through whatever we are doing
