YOUTH FOR CHRIST
DOWNTOWN WINNIPEG

The Lord is so good! During drop in one night I was talking to a group of youth when I noticed a new kid come in the door for a couple minutes and then leave after.
I awkwardly chased him down wanting him to feel welcome and introduced myself. He said he wanted to participate but couldn't because his ankle was so sore. I prayed for his ankle and Jesus completely healed it!!! I told him that he had been healed because Jesus loves him so much and that's just what He does.
Jesus heals! He said it was kinda creepy and weird that the pain just went away completely. He then hung out for the next hour and enjoyed himself. We had a deep conversation where he expressed that his parents divorced 3 months ago and he was now living in a group home. Please keep praying for him.

The Lord has been touching youth in my drop in like crazy. We have seen many youth give their lives to Christ and multiple youth be healed in the name of Jesus.

Pray for these youth, that they would experience the love of the Father, that they would be passionate about growing in their faith and that they would be encouraged to pursue Jesus after giving their lives to the Lord.
