VISION TRIP TO KOSOVO & MONTENEGRO

Pastor Jonathan and Frank Ulrich, chair of the International Missions Committee, are very blessed to have the opportunity to go on a vision trip on behalf of the church (April 23-May 4).

The purpose of the trip is to go and see Kosovo and Montenegro and prayerfully consider if God would have our church begin a long term partnership in one or both of these countries. Specifically, there is a people group called the Gorani who live in the mountainous region of Kosovo that they will be visiting in order to discern God's leading. The rationale for exploring this area of the world is that there is no existing church and virtually no believers among the Gorani (0.0% Evangelical according to the Joshua Project).

Please pray for safe travels, meaningful connections with local missionaries, and opportunities to share the gospel in Kosovo and Montenegro.
Pray also that the Lord would show us as a church how we can get involved in furthering His Kingdom where there are no churches and little knowledge of the gospel. Please pray also for Pastor Jonathan's wife and two boys Haddon, as well as Frank's wife and sons during the 12 days they are away.
