Elsie Lewandowski
MISSIONARY TEACHER
IN CAMEROON

From Elsie's May Newsletter:

"Miss Elsie, you're back!" I've been hearing that a lot these days. February/March in Yaoundé, April in Bamenda, May in Yaoundé, June in Bamenda... I praise God for the days I can spend in Bamenda and for the help I can give in Yaoundé. One week at a time. One project at a time.

God is at work in and through the crisis in Cameroon. Elsie gives an account of what is happening with the Esimbe people in the newsletter. You can read it here: <https://nabonmission.org/traveling-in-cameroon/>

PRAISES:

- Safety and provision, especially rain and healthy crops for so many people in the NW/SW region
- A wonderful visit to Bamenda even though I was not able to continue my phonics class
- Opportunities to proctor AP exams and "flesh out" curriculum

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- A resolution to the problems in the NW/SW regions
- Safety and provision, especially for those in the bush
- Contentment as I try to do God's will just for the day.
